The new Office of Faculty Development, now joined with the Center for Teaching and Learning, invites all Stanford professoriate, lecturers, and clinical educators to a Faculty Resource Fair and Reception. Please join us in this Kick-Off Celebration!

Resource Fair
2:00 - 4:30pm

Participating groups will highlight the many ways that faculty members can engage in the Stanford community from early career through Emeritus status.

Faculty & Family Reception
4:00 - 6:00 pm

Join us to celebrate! Faculty members and partners, spouses and children are invited to attend. The reception is an informal opportunity to meet new friends and colleagues in a relaxed atmosphere. There will be music, giveaways, food and drinks, and face painting, balloon art and a magician for children.

Breakout Sessions
2:00 - 4:00 pm

Stanford Funding Opportunities: Strategies for Successful Applications

Between Raising Children and Aging Parents - It Takes a Village

Center For Teaching and Learning (CTL):
• The Power of Poll Everywhere
• Teaching Your Students to Learn
• Navigating Sensitive Conversations in the Classroom

So You Think You Aren’t Ready to Retire!

Success as an Academic Parent - Work and Life with a New Child

For more information visit: https://facultydevelopment.stanford.edu/faculty-resource-fair-2020